

11 disc golf courses in Central Texas

WILLIAMSON COUNTY

Georgetown

1 Rivery Park. A public, 18-hole course near the San Gabriel River. 11448 Rivery Blvd., Georgetown.

Round Rock

2 Old Settlers Park. A public, 18-hole course. 3300 E. Palm Valley Blvd., Round Rock.

TRAVIS COUNTY

Austin

3 Our Savior Lutheran Church. A nine-hole course on the church's private property, but open to the public free of charge. 1513 E. Yager Lane.

4 Bartholomew Park. A public, 18-hole course. 5201 Berkman Drive.

5 Pease Park. A public, 18-hole course. 1100 Kingsbury St., adjacent to Lamar Boulevard.

6 Zilker Park. A public course with nine holes that are rotated between the north and south side of the park. 2100 Barton Springs Road.

7 Circle C Ranch Metropolitan Park. A public, 21-hole course set along the banks of Slaughter Creek. 6301 W. Slaughter Lane.

8 Mary Moore Searight Metropolitan Park. A public, 18-hole course. 907 Slaughter Lane.

HAYS COUNTY

Dripping Springs

9 Twin Parks Country Club. A private club with two 18-hole courses. Yearly and monthly membership packages are available. 1111 Country Acres Road, Dripping Springs. (512) 858-2924.

Near Wimberley

10 Circle R Disc Golf Course. A private disc-golf center with two 18-hole courses and a pro shop in the heart of the Hill Country. 11801 FM 2325, Wimberley. $5 for an all-day pass. (830) 833-1227, www.circularproductions.com/content/view/39/41.

Kyle

11 Steeplechase Park Disc Golf Course. A new, 18-hole public course with pro- and amateur-level tee boxes at each hole. 1300 Lehman Road, Kyle.

For information on these and other courses, also visit www.centxdglove.com.

